

Mayk Azzato is an Italian photographer who is based in Frankfurt am Main, Germany. For the past 20 years he has enjoyed a very successful international career in editorial and advertising photography. His father, Agostino Azzato, was an internationally renowned photo journalist so that Mayk discovered the fascination of photography quite early at the age of fifteen.

Besides his interest for photography Mayk had another passion: soccer. Thus, Mayk initially didn't plan to become a professional photographer for his childhood dream was to become a professional soccer player.

He concentrated on his career as a professional soccer player and with his passion, his discipline and purposefulness he fulfilled his dream and became a professional soccer player in the Bundesliga (which similar to the major league in US or the National Football League).

He was one of the most talented young soccer players but during one match an opposing player caused a serious injury to his knee which forced him to give up his career as a professional soccer player which had only just begun. Realizing the fact that he will never be able to play soccer at a professional level again he was shocked and frustrated. Fortunately he still had his passion for photography so he began to put all his energy to becoming a successful international photographer like his father Agostino.

Within a very short time art buyers of international advertising companies discovered Azzato's talent and his own way of taking pictures which combines the Italian creativity and passion with German precision and discipline.

Now he is a photographer in great demand. His international clients include companies like Audi, BMW, Daimler Benz, Gellner, Sony BMG, Timberland, Sony Ericsson, Germany's next Topmodel, Suzuki, Daniel Hechter, Procter & Gamble, Paul Mitchell, AIDA Cruises, Bentley, Nintendo, Nikon and other international renowned brands.

Besides his advertisement jobs he has shot photos for magazines like Vanity Fair, Maxim, FHM, GQ, Vogue and took pictures for CD covers of many international musicians. He has worked with international celebrities like SEAL, SNOOP DOGG, OUTKAST, 50 Cent, President Bill Clinton, Marcus Schenkenberg, Kim Wilde, Sarah Connor and Ornella Muti.

Since Mayk started the project "nobody is perfect" portraying celebrities in front of a police registration board the mass media is showing a big interest in reporting about Mayk.

His creative agency company, Azzato creatives, organizes a vernissage for the "nobody is perfect" project every year with international celebrities, musicians, politicians. The event with 600 guests has always been covered in the prime time television news and in almost every lifestyle magazine.

Mayk's popularity has risen continuously and he has become a celebrity himself. He has become a brand ambassador for brands like Vertu, Maurice Lacroix, Nikon lenses and Hensel performing light using his popularity to promote their brands.
